AS FLEW

Dedication

To A. Jesse Burroughs, teacher-composer who for three generations has taught music in Richmond, known to most of us as "Jess", who has been willing to work with patience, who has composed several pieces of music including "Richmond High March", which has been played in Europe and Pan American countries----to him, we gratefully dedicate this Echo of 1943.

MARION CROUSE
Class Advisor

We, the senior class of 1943, know from nothing. But we've had a lot of fun while acquiring our mental rating of 4-F.

As freshman we distinguished ourselves. We had a sleighride party and a scavenger hut that were especially fun. We elected Betty Scott, President, Mary Ellen Evans, V. President, George Tromley, Secretary, and Arpa Junke, Treasurer. Our class advisor was Mr. Trudgeon.

Then we were sophomores and beginning to feel a wee bit important. We elected Avis Fries, President, Joe Cunningham, V. President, Bob Snitchler, Secretary, and Agnes Leach, Treasurer. Our worthy advisor was Miss Masselink. We took over the "Sophomore News" and made it a paying sheet.

When we attained the lofty peak of "juniors", all of us felt like stockholders in dear old R.H.S. We received our rings and began the usual exchange, for instance---"Why Mart, your ring fits my middle finger exactly!" We held our J-Hop, Howard Hughes holding sway. In May we gave our junior play, "Spring Fever". Our class officers this year were Peggy Marshall, Betty Scott, Bryce Beversdorf, and Norman Bobcean; president, v. president, secretary, and treasurer respectively.

And now we are seniors: In our final year of high school we look back on a lot of fun---football games, school dances, plays, activity clubs, varsity, band, and class parties. This year we elected Bryce Beversdorf, President, Martin Montgomery, V. President, Arpa Junke, Secretary, and Eldon Kaufman, Treasurer. Mr. Crouse has acted as our advisor. Our senior play, "Gallopig Ghosts", is now behind us, and we are trying to live it down. Coming attractions: Prom, graduation, senior trip, and Alumni Banquet.

Goodbye, R.H.S. Greetings, world!

TEAM PORTRAIT

This year with eleven lettermen returning Richmond looked forward to a good season. We changed from the Tri-County to the River League, playing seven games this fall--winning 1, losing 4, and tying 2. These games were all close and we had a better team than our record indicates.

Nine men are Seniors: Capt. N. Bobcean, B. Beversdorf, D. Chartrand, J. Cunningham, R. Faulman, M. Montgomery, S. Sass, W. Siefert, R. Snitchler, and J. Penn.

BAND PORTRAIT

Our band under the direction of Jesse Burroughs is coming along fine in spite of the weird noises that float through the halls every Monday and Thursday.

There are thirty members in our band and they have played at several programs given at the Auditorium, including the Senior Play, Junior Play, and the Milk Association at the Hotel.

We congratulate Jesse for the fine work he is doing in our school and also the students participating in the band.

Girls' Glee Club

CLUB PORTRAIT

Our Glee Club under the direction of Miss Sours adds its weird noises to the band, but are accomplishing a great deal.

They had an Operretta last year and it turned out to be very successful. We hope they have another this year.

Some of the songs the girls are practicing are--"Your Land is My Land," "Homing," "A Persian Market," "Gen-a-mi-a-mia," and their arrangement of "Ave Maria" is an especially lovely one.

First Row: Patricia King - Doris Moran - Vivien Tout - Barb Zryd - Shirley Cribbs - Maxine Penwarden - Lorraine Hall.

Second Row: Marian Burgess - Violet Brown - Marion Van Nuck - Ada Byland - Elaine Dayton - Violet Bilbia - Mildred Sutton - Betty Kaatz.

Third Row: Geoffry Howes - Paul Miller - Jerry Waterloo - John Tincoff - Myrtle Norton - Miss Oxenger - Glennes Weymouth - Lorraine Zuelhke - Prudence Rhoades.

CLUB PORTRAIT

The members of the first year Latin class have formed a club which goes by the simple name of "The Latin Club". The club meets once each month and tries to use real Roman phrases, foods, and customs in all of its activities. The main purpose of the club is to help the pupils develop a better background for the study of Latin and to make Latin a more interesting subject to others.

Debate Team

First Row: Elaine Dayton - Miss Hivala - Bertha Mitchell.

Second Row: Betty Scott - John Tincoff - Marjorie Banting - Frieda Conrad.

CLUB PORTRAIT

Our topic for debate this year was Resolve: That a World Federal Government be Established--after this war.

There were a large number who began but as it became more difficult and involved they dropped out. We now have six members.

Our first step was to learn the principles of debate. We then outlined the affirmative and negative sides and had practice debates. We struggled through four debates with Rochester, Utica, and Cranbrook, being defeated but put up good opposition.

First Row: Claude Harmon - Dean Schumaker - Eugene Meyers
- Joe Mazur - Floyd Breuer.

Second Row: Martin Montgomery - Charles Snitchler - Julian
Gondczar - Wilfred Zuehlke - Jack Smith - Dean Flowers -
Roy Faulman - Norman Bobcean - Bryce Beversdorf - Shirley Sass.

Third Row: John Penn - Edmund Keilbasa - Marcel Maertins -
Robert Hankins - Eldon Wahl - Howard Silk - John Slabodzan -
Roy Thueme - Eldon Kaufman - Otto Huwe - Mr. Kienitz.

CLUB PORTRAIT

The F.F.A. boys started out by initiating their new members. What fun, eh fellows? Our first big job this year was the Fair. Everyone said it was the best one we have ever had.

The Ag boys started the new year right by having their meetings in members' houses. They gave a real house warming.

The fellows are raising chickens and selling seed corn to make money. We'll learn how to do that if nothing else.

CLUB OFFICERS

President.....Martin Montgomery

Vice President.....Norman Bobcean

Secretary.....Howard Silk

Treasurer.....Shirley Sass

Home Economics Club

Second Row: Mary Ann Yelenich - Betty Cronk - Ruth Zryd - Betty Genshow - Avis Fries - Ruth Whittaker - Vivien Tout - Margaret Webb - Effie Nolan - Doris Hebel.

Third Row: Eileen Zentgrebe - Frances McKinlay - Carol Marker - Delores Schultz - Virginia Russ - Barbara Zryd - Rita Theume - Marian Burgess - Lillian Mazur - Evelyn Bobcean - Lucille Bauman - Betty Hood - Norene Singer - Mrs. Carroll.

CLUB PORTRAIT

This club is supervised by the able Mrs. Carroll. The girls have had a few parties but are busying themselves by more important jobs, such as making soldiers' kits. Of course, Barb would see to that! Right up her alley. This was all voluntary work. They also had a great part in the producing of our Community Fair where they ran a booth.
